

Engaging with the Early Childhood Care and Development Policy Partnership (ECPP)

Privacy statement

The ECPP welcomes requests for engagement from government and non-government organisations developing policies or initiatives that will impact the lives of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children and their families. In the first instance, engagement opportunities will be considered by the ECPP co-secretariat made up of the Department of Education and SNAICC – National Voice for our Children (SNAICC), the national peak body for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children.

To contact the ECPP co-secretariat about an engagement opportunity, please email ECCDpolicypartnership@education.gov.au with your contact details and a short summary of your organisation's opportunity.

Personal information

Your personal information is protected by law, including under the Privacy Act 1988 (Privacy Act).

Personal information is information or an opinion about an identifiable individual. Personal information includes an individual's name and contact details.

Purpose of collecting your information

Your personal information is collected for the purposes of communicating with you on your engagement request, enabling the ECPP to consider and pursue relevant engagement opportunities and to conduct other activities related to this engagement.

Use and disclosure of your personal information

Your personal information may be used by or disclosed to SNAICC in their role as ECPP co-secretariat and co-chair. However, your personal information will not be directly shared with other members of the ECPP.

Your personal information may also be disclosed to other parties where you have agreed, or where it is otherwise permitted under the Privacy Act.

Privacy policy

The department's Privacy Policy, including information about how to make a complaint and access to and correction of your personal information, can be found at <https://www.education.gov.au/privacy> or by requesting a copy from the department at privacy@education.gov.au.

To contact the department about your personal information email privacy@education.gov.au.
