Responses

Curriculum and assessment

Greater access and support in Speciality subjects (i.e. online learning when subjects are not available locally).

Also more meaningful assessment (NAPLAN has been fantastic) so parents can truly understand where their children are on the educational scale and source help, or more challenging curriculum.

Rating: 7

Teachers and teaching

Inspirational teaching is always key, it would be advantageous to remove long service teachers from key teaching roles and into support roles prior to retirement to allow younger, more enthusiastic teachers a chance in the classroom whilst under the guidance of experienced 'teacher managers
