Dear Mr French

I write in response to your letter to our Vice-Chancellor, Professor Rufus Black, dated 29 November 2018.

Other than what is available on our University website, we have no other material to assist with your Review.

For your convenience however, the relevant information relating to freedom of expression and intellectual inquiry at the University of Tasmania is outlined below:

Information sought	UTAS response
1. University statutes, regulations, rules or by-laws	Not applicable
2. Administrative codes, policies or principles	Governance Level Principle (Academic Freedom) http://www.utas.edu.au/university-council/university-governance/governance-level-principles/academic-freedom-glp14 Freedom to Inquiry Policy and the Responsibility to Publish Policy http://www.utas.edu.au/data/assets/pdf_file/0003/30936/Freedom-of-Inquiry-and-the-Responsibility-to-Publish-Policy.pdf University Staff Agreement https://universitytasmania.sharepoint.com/sites/people/Shared%20Documents/UTAS-Staff-Agreement.pdf University Behaviour Policy http://www.utas.edu.au/data/assets/pdf_file/0006/1181985/University-Behaviour-Policy.pdf
3. Other material which deals with academic freedom	None
4. Reports of relevant non-confidential reviews	None

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions or require clarification on any our policies.

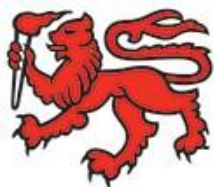

With regards,

Kellie Dean
