

Could the panel please discuss the effect that lanite has on the potential of ensuring there are more teachers graduating?

Many students are proving to be capable teachers in a practical setting and passing their course but struggle in exam conditions with a test that makes or breaks 4 years of their time, money and effort.